* In addition to the tutor and houseparents, all Tier 4 students on this fee will be entitled to the services of The International Welfare Officer, (IWO). This member of staff is specifically responsible for overseeing the care of students coming from abroad. Parents of international students can feel remote and isolated especially until their child has settled. The IWO is available throughout term time and will respond to parents/guardians/agents within 48 hours of receipt of any communication. The IWO liaises with the transport department on airport arrivals, coordinates international induction, organises police registration, arranges the opening of bank accounts and getting phone cards etc. Throughout the year the IWO acts as a liaison point between parents, guardians, agents, tutors and houseparents and students. They will meet with the student at least once each week and meet with parents, if required, when they visit during term time.
