Learning Support Teacher (Part Time)
Required September 2018
(One day each week (maximum 8 hours))

Set in an area of Outstanding Natural Beauty in the South Shropshire Hills and just 12 miles from the famous, medieval, walled market town of Ludlow, Bedstone College is a quintessentially British Independent School. With the historic towns of Hereford and Shrewsbury within 25 miles, there are excellent transport links to the rest of the UK. Birmingham International airport is just over an hour by car. This key post offers an exciting opportunity to an enthusiastic, professional and hard-working person who is passionate about working in a school environment and is looking for a challenging role in assisting in the teaching of students with additional learning needs.

- The ideal candidate will be an experienced and qualified teacher of students with Specific Learning Difficulties (SpLD), such as dyslexia and dyscalculia. Applicants should have, or be working towards, Approved Teacher Status (ATS) or Associate Membership of the British Dyslexia Association (AMBDA), or equivalent.

The successful candidate will benefit from a free lunch at the college on the day(s) that they work and they will also be entitled to a very generous fee reduction with respect to their children being educated at the College.

The hourly rate will be set by agreement with the successful candidate.

See the Job description for further detail on our website.
