

BEDSTONE

Teacher - Maths (full time)

REQUIRED FOR SEPTEMBER 2023

We are looking for an enthusiastic and knowledgeable teacher to fill the above role. Do you have the qualities we need to give the pupils the education they demand and deserve, up to and including A level? You will be innovative in your teaching, ensuring the students develop the desire to do the best they can. You will have high expectations of yourself and the students with the proven ability to inspire and motivate everyone to achieve their best in your subject. ECTs will receive an extensive and tailored programme with in-house support from a mentor.

This is an exciting opportunity to work in a busy day and boarding school where you will be fully involved with co-curricular activities and the wider life of the school. Energy and a flexible approach to working hours are essential. There is the possibility of onsite accommodation, along with boarding duties. Own transport essential.

Bedstone has its own salary scale and the salary will be set according to qualifications and experience. There are also fee concessions with respect to staff children being educated at the College.

An application form and job description can be obtained from Ms Christine Preston, PA to the Head, (pa@bedstone.org) to whom completed applications should be returned by Monday 19th June. They are also available in the Academic Vacancies section of our website Vacancies: Academic - Bedstone College

Closing date for applications: 9am Monday 19th June

Interviews: w/c 26th June

Bedstone College is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post.
